

Combat Female Veterans Families (CFVF) United

Economic Assistance Program FAQ

* Please note (Subject to the availability of funds)

What does the Economic Assistance Program do?

Economic Assistance Program provides funding for eligible expenses, referrals to other service organizations, and assist Combat Female Veterans' ongoing transition back to the civilian world (Life After War).

Who is eligible to receive assistance?

The applicant must be the female veteran or eligible dependent of a female veteran listed under the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS) who deployed to an overseas location and received Hostile Fire Pay/ served in a combat zone.

Who is not eligible to receive assistance?

Exclusively for female Veterans who have actively served in the United States military during periods of war (deployed in hostile territories), regardless of role and discharge status. All others are not eligible.

How can I contact the Economic Assistance Program?

CFVF United Economic Assistance Program Headquarters is located in Greensboro, North Carolina.

Mailing Address: CFVF United Economic Assistance Program, PO BOX #16332, Greensboro, NC 27406

Email Address: assistance@cfvfunitied.com

Website: <https://www.cfvfunitied.com/emergency-assistance-program-2/>

How do I get an application for the Economic Assistance Program?

The online application can be found at <https://www.cfvfunitied.com/economic-assistance-program-2/> .

Applications cannot be completed unless all required fields are met. Once the application is submitted, an email confirming successful submission will automatically be sent.

How does the Economic Assistance Program application process work?

Once an application has been submitted, the Economic Assistance Program caseworkers review the application and contacts the applicant if necessary for any additional required documents or information. All expenses are verified with the creditors. Payments are sent directly to the creditor to ensure proper disbursement of funds.

What additional documents are needed for the Economic Assistance Program to process an application?

All required documents are submitted with the online application and cannot be submitted without them. Depending on the situation, additional documentation may be requested by the Economic Assistance Program caseworker.

What kind of expenses does the Economic Assistance Program assist with?

Economic Assistance Program eligible expenses are as follows: Housing- mortgage/ rent, Utilities, Childcare expenses, Essential Home Items, and Food- referrals/ resources

What kind of expenses does the Economic Assistance Program not assist with?

Economic Assistance Program ineligible expenses are as follows: credit cards, military charge cards or retail store cards; Medical procedures & expenses; Taxes - property or otherwise; Vehicle payments & vehicle rentals; and any other expense determined to not be a basic life necessity.

How long does the application process take?

The applications are processed in the order in which they are received. It can take up to 10 business days to process an application once received.

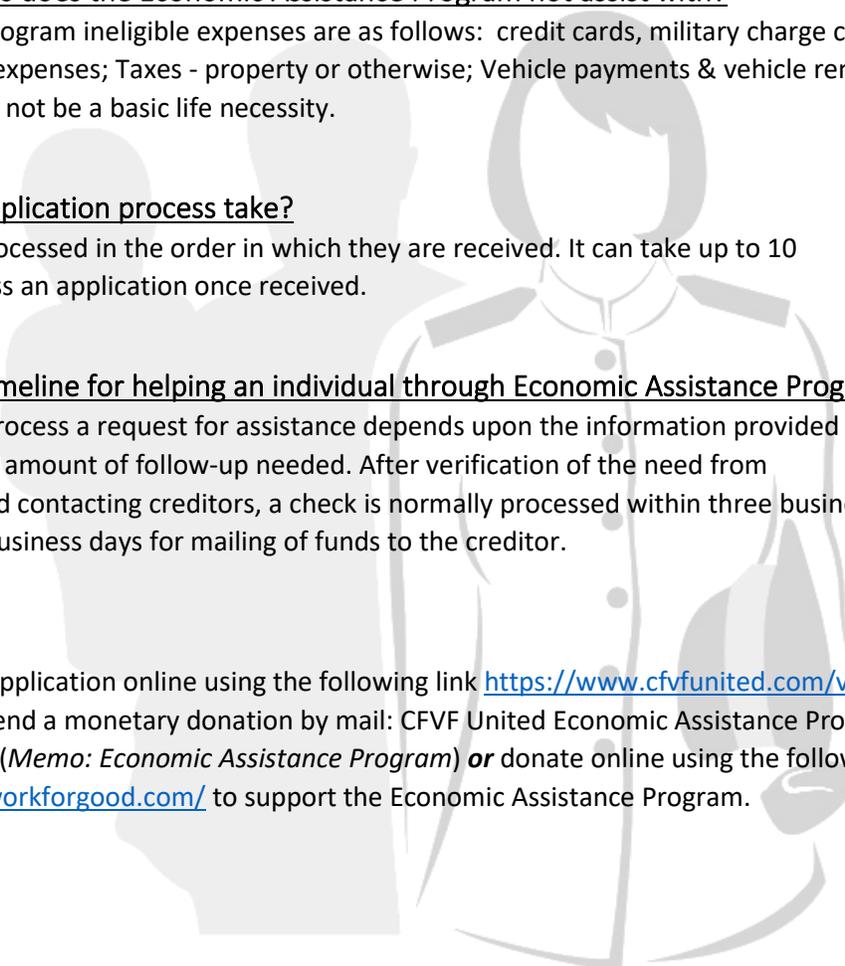

What is the normal timeline for helping an individual through Economic Assistance Program?

The length of time to process a request for assistance depends upon the information provided on the application and the amount of follow-up needed. After verification of the need from the service member and contacting creditors, a check is normally processed within three business days and an additional 5-7 business days for mailing of funds to the creditor.

How can I help?

Volunteer: Submit an application online using the following link <https://www.cvfvf.com/volunteer-2/>

Donate: You can also send a monetary donation by mail: CFVF United Economic Assistance Program, PO BOX #16332, Greensboro, NC 27406 (Memo: Economic Assistance Program) or donate online using the following link: <https://cvfvf.networkforgood.com/> to support the Economic Assistance Program.

Combat Female
Veterans Families United